RUNNELS A WINNER.

The heavy downpour of rain Thursday night rendered the course at Washington Park yesterday somewhat holding and sticky, favoring horses that run to their best form in mud. In all but the two-year-old race scratching was copiously indulged in, causing several of the races to be somewhat lopsided.

Most interest probably centered in the meeting of Runnels and Sylvia Talbot in the second race, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Both horses are well known mudlarks and have many followers. Runnels was made a 1 to 2 favorite, but even at these figures was heavily backed. To a good start, Sylvia Talbot at once dashed to the front opening up a gap of three and a half lengths, while going down the backstretch. Runnels in the early stages of the race appeared to labor slightly. Turning for home Sylvia Talbot still held an advantage of two and a half lengths, and when a furlong out appeared the winner, but here, Runnels moved up fast and getting to her in the last hundred yards easily beat her to the wire by a length. Red Raven, the only other starter, was a beaten off third, having cut no figure in the race at any part of it.

Much interest was taken from the day's first race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward, by the scratching of Gregor K. and Glassfull. But four horses started, Bad News being held at almost prohibitive odds in the betting. He simply played with the field and made it look cheap, winning eased up by ten lengths from Rossmund, which beat Frank M. three and a half for second place. Lendin ran an unaccountably dull race, showing scant speed throughout.

The third race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds, brought an unwieldy field of fourteen to the post. Helgerson was made a slight favorite, being held at 3 to 1 in the betting, but ran a somewhat dull race, failing to finish inside of the first three. The winner turned up in that consistent filly Nannie Hodge, the well backed second choice. Off in front and well in her stride, she at once assumed command and was never in trouble thereafter, winning in a canter by five lengths from Dugannon, which finished one before Cognomen for second place. Dugannon showed a liking for the going, ran a good race and had little trouble in wearing down Cognomen in the last sixteenth and was much the best of the others. Cognomen tired fast in the closing strides. Bery Waddell, badly outrun in the first half mile, made up ground rapidly in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Helgerson began slowly, but moved up fast after turning for home and was passing horses fast in the closing strides. Oudon showed a little early speed.

The fourth race, a dash of a mile and fifty yards for three-year-olds, went to the favorite Orsina, held at 2 to 1 in the betting. With the exception of the first quarter, where Esherin led her by a neck, she was always in front and easily withstanding Airlight's determined challenged in the final eighth, won by one length. Airlight finished four lengths before Lord Touchwood for second place. The former was under keen pressure all through the last quarter, but had no chance to beat the winner. Warte Nicht occupied a contending position when turning into the final quarter, but tired in the last eighth struggle. Mirance showed some early speed.

The fifth race, a dash of one mile and fifty yards for three-year-olds and upward, brought a mediocre field to the post. Alea was supposed to be the best and was made an 18 to 5 favorite, but had all he could do to finish second, the winner turning up in Jaubert. Alea led by a big margin until just after passing into the last quarter, where Jaubert moved up fast on him and catching him when a furlong out, had no trouble in gaining the lead, winning easily by two and a half lengths. Alea tired fast in the closing strides, but held on long enough to beat Marcos a head for second place. The latter made up ground fast in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Prince Blazes appeared to have a good chance when turning for home, but faltered badly when the pinch came.

The last race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, proved to be an easy thing for Antonius, the favorite, which came home the easiest of winners two and a half lengths before Evelyn Byrd, which beat Pirate one and a half lengths for second place. Louisville fired in the final sixteenth, allowing Pirate to nip her on the post.

SALES OF YEARLINGS.

At the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks, Sheepshead Bay, the yearlings from Col. W. S. Barnes' Melbourne Stud were disposed of Monday, June 29. Twenty-four youngsters were sold for $18,250, an average of $760. P. J. Dwyer secured the highest priced one in the lot when he paid $3,500 for a colt by Ben Brush—Maid of Promise. Andrew Miller bought several youngsters. He paid $2,000 for a Prince of Monaco—Sallie of Navarre colt. A colt by Belvidere—Lillian Lindsay went to Gus Strauss for $2,000. J. W. Schorr paid $1,600 for a brother to Moncreith, Old Centre and The Goldfinder. He is by Jim Gore—Bagpipes.

Winner—B. c, by Wagner—Undecided (trained by W. M. Scheftel). Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Wotan, ridden with patience and skill, after getting away in the rear, improved his position rapidly when going up the backstretch and, being steadied on the turn, finished with a rare burst of speed in the stretch, just getting up at the very end. Knobhampton broke in his stride and practically forced the pace throughout and finished resolutely. He is an improved colt of gigantic size. Sacredus was shut out in the first furlong, but made up a lot of ground in the last half and finished fast. Graziallo went right out and was a hot contender for five furlongs. Montana King, on the inside and away flatfooted, was kept in a hopeless pocket, eventually falling to his knees on the stretch turn, but picked himself up and set sail for the leaders in the stretch and easily gained ten lengths in the stretch run. Latheron finished close up. Topic can do better and has been highly tried.

Scratched—40182 Sandhurst, 112; 39669 Midshipman, 102; 40212 Sals, 102; 40212 Great Crossing, 99.

Winner—B. c, by St. Saviour—Josie W. (trained by P. M. Civill). Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Sambo, a fast and good horse, but difficult to guess in the hands of a slow jockey, was nearly left and, trailing his field for over half the journey, he commenced to pass his horses as if they were anchored and came on the extreme outside at the end with a phenomenal rush, just getting up in the last stride and going away fast. Water Tower was lucky and skillfully placed in the front division to the stretch, where he drew into a clear lead and appeared like winning, but was unexpectedly downed right at the end. Circus, nuder Burns' vigorous ride, displayed more early speed than heretofore and rated along at a steady clip throughout. Homestead was a contender when a furlong from the finish, where a big bunch were on even terms. Lord Advocate and Colonsay ran unexpectedly well for both suffered from crowding in the last furlong. Turnpike is evidently in his best form and on a heavy track would probably have won today's race. Ethics ran a dull race throughout.

Scratched—40110*Thornecroft, 108; 40163 Justice, 96; 40087 Early Eve, 96.

Winner—B. c, by Sir Modred—Duchess of Kendal (trained by J. McLaughlin). Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Duke of Kendal is vastly improved and a fitter horse, due to the recent hot weather. He got away well and held a forward position in the first half, coming through with a rush on the inside when turning into the stretch and rather easily retained a safe lead to the end. St. Finnan made up ground on the turn and followed the winner closely into the stretch, where he finished out gamely. Flying Buttress held on gamely throughout under Bullman's energetic handling and scored a lucky third. Operator took to the outside except in the final furlong, where he swerved over to the inner rails and was a good horse badly messed about. Midnight Chimes led by quite a margin for nearly five furlongs and held on unexpectedly well at the end. Wealth made up ground in the stretch. Duelist got away very badly.

BOWLING BROOK YEARLINGS SOLD.

The yearlings from the Bowling Brook Stud of A. H. & D. H. Morris, and the Eaton Stud of A. Albright, Jr., were disposed of at auction Thursday, July 2, at the Fasig-Tipton paddocks, Sheephead Bay. Fine prices were realized for some of the Morris lot. In the entire sale sixteen youngsters brought $19,150, an average of about $1,197. The star of the lot was a half brother to the Futurity winner, Yankee, and Stripes, he being by Bowling Brook or Filigrane—Correction. There was some lively bidding for the colt between Fred Burlew, representing John E. Madden, and C. O. Climpson. Madden finally got him for $5,000. He also bought two others. Tom Welch, acting for Julius Fleischmann, went to $4,000 for a half brother to The Friar and Hanover Queen, but C. O. Climpson secured him with an advance of $50. The colt is by Galore or Filigrane—Lizzie Baker. The Gold Crest and Affect colt, owned by W. L. Powers, went to Frank Brown for $1,900.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

J. Phillips, father of jockey H. Phillips, received a letter yesterday from P. J. Miles, who is racing a stable of horses at present on the eastern tracks, asking him to set a price on a contract for the jockey's services for the remainder of this season and next year. The elder Phillips stated yesterday, that although he would like to place his son with some big eastern stable, he is by no means in any hurry to make terms, and will wait for a few days before replying to Miles. Gwyn Tompkins, the well known owner and trainer, was among the spectators yesterday at the track, having arrived in the morning from New York, where his horses have been frequent winners. Before leaving the east he sent twelve horses to Saratoga, where they will be raced when the meeting there begins.

Jockey Waterbury, who was in the employment of "Doc" Rowell in California and where he rode Yellow Tail and others frequently to victory, arrived yesterday from New York and will from now on ride the horses of Durnell & Herz.

Jockeys J. Booker and H. Phillips were fined $50 and $25 respectively, by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Red Raven, which started in the second race, made his debut yesterday as a racer. He was a candidate for Derby honors and his stable connections thought highly of his chances during the spring months. His performance yesterday was not so bad for a green racer and he may develop and make good his stable expectations.

Jockey J. Reiff, who met with an accident at Harlem, was discharged yesterday from the Garfield Park Sanitarium and is at present spending his convalescence in one of the cottages at the Hawthorne track. Although the little rider is practically cured, he was advised to rest and will not be seen in the saddle for probably three weeks.

T. C. McDowell stated yesterday that although Allan-a-Dale is now apparently as sound as ever, he will probably not be started again during the meeting. It was the owner's intention to start Allan-a-Dale in both the Young and Wheeler handicaps, but the symptoms of lameness, which the horse displayed immediately after his last start, combined with a slight ailment brought on by the hot weather, has caused a let-up in his training and as he requires a lot of work Mr. McDowell does not think he could be in good enough shape to run a bruising race.

Winner—Br. g, by Flying Dutchman—Black Sleeves (trained by L. Bellew).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Bad News took kindly to the going, showed much the most speed and made the field look cheap. Rossmond ran a good race and was easily best of the others. Frank M. was under keen punishment all through the last quarter, but it availed him little. Lendin appeared unable to extend himself freely in the sticky going.

Winner—Br. c, by Charade—Zingara II (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hunnels was outrun for the first five furlongs, but closed up fast on Sylvia Talbot in the final sixteenth, and passing her in the final strides, was going away at the end. Winner—Ch. f, by Rossington—Mrs. Lane (trained by W. W. Darden).
Went to post at 3:30. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Nannie Hodge took kindly to the going and, tiptoeing the field all the way, won as her rider pleased. Dungannon outstayed Cognomen in the last sixteenth struggle. The latter tired fast when the pinch came. Bery Waddell came with a rush at the end. Helgersen began slowly, but made up ground in the last quarter and was passing horses rapidly at the end. Oudon was well beaten when entering the last quarter. The others were never serious contenders.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Orsina was much the best, took kindly to the going and easily offstood Airlight's determined challenge in the final eighth. The latter tired fast when a furlong out and was swerving in the final sixteenth. Lord Touchwood easily wore down Warte Nicht when the pinch came. The latter was well beaten when a sixteenth out. Sir Hugh ran well for six furlongs, but ceased to be a serious contender by the time the head of the stretch had been reached. Mirance showed a little early speed.

 Winner--B. c, by Fitz James--Queen's Taste (trained by H. E. Rowell).
 Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
 Bon Mot followed Flying Jib closely, had clear sailing throughout, finished out the final furlong with a rare burst of speed and won going away. Flying Jib made the running for nearly nine furlongs, hard held for the first mile and it appeared as if he refused to try in the final furlong. W. R. Condon was a prominent contender throughout and bids fair to develop into a superior horse over a considerable distance of ground. Warranted and Brigand brought up the rear for over seven furlongs and both made up a lot of ground in the last half mile, finishing with a rush. The other three gave way in the run home.
 Scratched--40187 Daly, 113.

 Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily.
 Divination won all the way after getting away in her stride and, under Bullman's tremendously vigorous finish, just got home by a narrow margin. Pristina closed a big gap from a rear position, overcoming plenty of interference, coming at the end like a cyclone on her own courage. Possession was hopelessly handicapped with a bad jockey and was a good filly today. St. Roma shows improved form. M. Theo was never dangerous. Marree made up ten lengths on the winner from a bad start. Yo San is a morning glory and a quitter in her races.

 Winner--Br. c, by Clifford--Garoga (trained by J. L. McGinnis).
 Went to post at 4:50. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving.
 Tribes Hill worked a difficult passage for a full mile of the journey and only got clear sailing in the last sixteenth, where he finished with an irresistible rush and was much the best. Rostand was prominent throughout and at the end got up and beat Syrlin for second place in the last stride. Syrlin ran well to the stretch and hung on well. Henry Clay Rye made up a lot of ground in the last five furlongs. Past was badly messed about and tiring at the end. Dark Planet closed a big gap after getting away poorly. Rockey went wide on both turns. Early Eve was nearly left and must have gained fifteen lengths on the leaders.
 Scratched--40186 Kingraine, 111; 40236 Spring Silk, 99; 40099 Decoration, 94.
 Overweights--Rostand, 1 pound; Henry Clay Rye, 1; Dark Planet, 1.

 Winner--Ch. f, by Rancocas--Addie Buchanan (trained by J. Nixon).
 Went to post at 2:46. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Sammie Mac showed the most speed and Walsh took no chances, kept her going all the way and won with plenty in reserve. President ran a good race and was only cantering for the first half, but tired when called on. He was probably a bit short and the race should improve him. Helen Oakford finished fast. Annola showed speed, but tired. Rusioni did not run her race.
 Sammie Mac, show, 3 to 5. President, show, evens. Helen Oakford, show, 1 to 2.

 Winner--B. h, by St. Leonards--Glen Fairy (trained by H. McCarren, Jr.).
 Went to post at 3:13. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Glenwood was in a soft spot and fairly cantered all the way. Prosador raced Not Wisely to subjection in the stretch run and got second place without trouble. John Drake dropped back while rounding the far turn and came again at the end. Not Wisely has probably had too much racing.
 Prosador, show, out. John Drake, show, evens.

 Winner--Ch. c, by Juvenal--Soliloquy (trained by E. Whyte).
 Went to post at 3:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Lochgoil was easily the best and held his field safe at all stages. Zarkee wore down George James and Dick Ripley in the stretch and had no trouble in securing second place. Dick Ripley was under a drive all of the last furlong. Caybon had to go all around his horses and could not get up. George James seems to have a streak of "yellow" in his composition.
 Scratched--40171 Irene Cross, 100.
 Overweights--Dick Ripley, 2 pounds; Diaphanous, 3.

 Winner--B. c, by Cayuga--Arragon (trained by J. Nixon).
 Went to post at 4:02. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
 Reservation won as if he outclassed his field. This was his "prep" for the Canadian Derby at Fort Erie. He began slowly, but easily ran past his horses at the end, finishing with plenty in reserve. Soothsayer ran well and was best of the others. He and Flora Willoughby fought it out all through the stretch, with the latter on the outside and Soothsayer proved best. Flora Willoughby finished gamely. Luralighter showed decided improvement over her last effort, but tired in the run home, too much use having been made of her in the first part of the race.
 Scratched--(40245) Harding, 109; 39854 Little Boy, 102.
 Overweights--Ancke, 3 pounds.
 Reservation, show, 1 to 2. Soothsayer, show, out. Flora Willoughby, show, evens. Luralighter, show, out.
